

Election Year Timeline of Political Activism

A Guide for Locals of the IATSE

Identify a Political Coordinator to lead political activism for your Local

Connect with your AFL-CIO State Federation and/or Central Labor Council

- ★ Engage in their state and local election activities
- ★ Get information on labor endorsed candidates

Review and share your state's election information, including:

- ★ Election dates and early voting
- ★ Voter registration and absentee ballot deadlines
- ★ Voter ID requirements
- ★ Polling location lookup

Educate yourself on the IATSE Federal Issue Agenda and issues important to you

Request access to the Labor Action Network (LAN) for your Political Coordinator

- ★ Review the LAN training materials and sign up for a webinar

Conduct a voter registration program

- ★ Obtain a list of unregistered voters in your Local from the LAN
- ★ Plan a voter registration drive

Support IATSE PAC

- ★ Login to the IATSEPAC.net website
- ★ Present IATSE PAC: Join the Fight! to your local membership
- ★ Highlight IATSE PAC in meetings and newsletters
- ★ Host a fundraiser following the regulations in IATSE PAC Guide

Establish a local union candidate endorsement process

Host a debate watch event

Organize a Local Union Mail campaign

Organize “Get Out the Vote” (GOTV) efforts:

- ★ Phone/Text Bank
- ★ Canvass
- ★ Local communications
- ★ Transportation to polls

Participate in the AFL-CIO “Release Staff” Program

Volunteer for a campaign

Share your activism on social media accounts

- ★ Ex: #IATSEVOTES

Encourage members to make a plan to vote

- ★ Confirm registration status
- ★ Find polling place
- ★ Learn voter ID requirements
- ★ Identify a specific time

Host an election night event

VOTE!

For More Information Contact
POLLEG@IATSE.NET