DECEMBER 5 – 13, 2024 STRATEGIC PLANNING

This class explores the process organizations undertake when doing long-range planning and applies it to labor unions. Students will learn the components of a strategic plan and the process for developing one with an eye toward developing a strategic plan relevant to their situations. All of this lays out solid considerations for working with your teams and moving your local forward. This class, for currently serving Local Union Officers, Officials, Trustees, and Board members is a virtual complement to the in-person IATSE Officer Institute. It is focused on effective leadership principles and tools to help attendees to build a high-capacity local union, effectively represent workers, communicate clearly, and set and achieve long term goals. The instructor for this class is Don Taylor, Professor, University of Wisconsin School for Workers

Learning is asynchronous!

ATTEND INDEPENDENTLY, AT YOUR OWN PACE FROM DECEMBER 5 – 13, 2024. Students will complete lessons on their own schedule, for a total of approximately 6-8 hours over the course of the 9 days. Lessons include short readings; videos; recorded PowerPoints; quizzes; and discussion boards where reflective questions will be posed, and students post responses and engage with the instructor and classmates.

WHO CAN ENROLL?

This class is open only to Officers, Officials, Trustees, and Board members of IATSE Local Unions. Class size is limited, so enroll early to avoid disappointment. There is a limit of three (3) individuals per local union.
